

Privacy Policy

PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING PRIVACY POLICY CAREFULLY. By using this site, you are deemed to have agreed to this policy. This Privacy Policy will advise you about how we collect, use, share, and protect personal information that we may collect from you through this site, and about your choices concerning our use of your personal information. Please read this policy carefully. We may need to change this policy from time to time in order to address new issues and reflect changes on our site. We will post those changes here, so please refer back to this policy regularly. Also, please note that this policy does not apply to any personal information that we may collect from you other than through this site.

If you have any questions or concerns about our privacy policy, please e-mail us at: info@garymartingroup.com

Personal Identification Information

We will collect personal identification information from you only if you voluntarily give it to us.

Except as specified in this Section, we will not intentionally disclose any personal identification information about you as an individual user (such as your full name, street address, telephone number, credit card number, or e-mail address) to any third party without your consent or permission. Gary Martin Group LLC may share your information with other Gary Martin Group affiliated companies. Your information may be shared with agents or contractors of Gary Martin Group in connection with services that these individuals or entities perform for Gary Martin Group.

We may request personal identification information from you in connection with your use of, or participation in, surveys, registrations, requests for suggestions, and in connection with other activities, services, or resources we make available to you.

Again, please note that you must voluntarily give this information to us. If you identify yourself to us by sending us an e-mail with questions or comments, we may use your personal information to respond to your questions or comments.

We may also use personal identification information for internal or external marketing and promotional purposes. On occasion, for example, Gary Martin Group and its affiliated companies may send you e-mails to introduce a product or service that we think might be of interest to you.

Additionally, we will release specific information about you to comply with any valid legal process such as a search warrant, subpoena, statute or court order. We will also release specific information in special cases, such as if there is an attempted breach of the security of the Gary Martin Group site, or a physical threat to you or others.

Non-Personal Information and the Use of Cookie Technology

We may collect non-personal information through the use of either "cookie" technology, IP address tracking, or both. Non-personal information is information that does not identify you personally and might include the browser you use, the type of computer, the operating systems, the Internet service providers, and other similar information. Cookies are small pieces of information stored on your hard drive, not on the Gary Martin Group site. Cookies allow us to personalize your experience at the Gary Martin Group site by automatically gathering information about the areas you visit on our site and about the links you may select from within our site to other areas of the World Wide Web or elsewhere online. Cookies also allow you to store your password (in the event one is necessary) without having to constantly re-enter it.

We use such information in the aggregate to understand how our users as a group use the services and resources provided on our site. In this way we know which areas of our site are favorites of our users, which areas need improvement and what technologies are being used so that we may continually improve our site.

We may also share this aggregate statistical information with our partners, suppliers and other third parties. Most browsers are set to accept cookies. You can set your browser to refuse cookies or to alert you when cookies are being sent. If you do so, please note that some parts of the Gary Martin Group site may not work properly.

Links to Other Sites and Liability to Third Parties

Users will find advertising or other content on our site that provide links to the sites and services of our partners, sponsors, licensors and other third parties. We do not control the content or links that appear on these sites and we are not responsible for the information or links you may find there. These sites and services may have their own privacy policies or no policy at all. We encourage you to review the privacy policies of any third party site or service before providing them with your personal information. The presence of these links on this website is not intended to imply our endorsement of that site or its goods or services, but to provide a convenient link to relevant sites that are managed by other organizations, companies, or individuals. Although we will use all reasonable efforts to safeguard the confidentiality of your personal identification information, transmissions made by means of the Internet cannot be made absolutely secure. Gary Martin Group will have no liability for disclosure of information due to errors in transmission or unauthorized acts of third parties.

Security Policy

Gary Martin Group will make reasonable efforts to keep secure the data you provide us and will take reasonable precautions, such as using a secure server, in an effort to protect your personal identification information from loss, misuse or alteration.

Agents or hosting contractors of Gary Martin Group who have access to your personal identification information in connection with providing services for Gary Martin Group are required to keep the information confidential and are not permitted to use this information for any other purpose than to carry out the services they are performing for Gary Martin Group.

Transfer of Business Assets

As we continue to develop our business, we may be acquired, merge with another business, acquire or buy other businesses or assets. In such transactions, customer information generally is one of the transferred business assets. In such an event, both personal identification and non-personal information will be one of the transferred assets. We will provide you with reasonable notice and an opportunity to opt-out prior to the transfer.

Your Acceptance of These Terms

By using this site, you accepted our Privacy Policy. If you do not agree to this policy, please do not use the site. Your continued use of the Gary Martin Group site following the posting of changes to these terms will mean that you accept those changes.
